Market Review:

According to data released by Saudi Arabian Monetary Authority (SAMA), the Saudi general reserve shrank 29.2% YoY to SAR641.8bn by the end of March. Total value of reserve assets fell 12.5% YoY to SAR1.9tn in March, which is the lowest since August 2011. Saudi Arabia achieved trade surplus in February. Total value of exports reached SAR65.8bn, while imports stood at SAR36.6bn in February. Saudi Arabia's real estate price index fell 9.9% in Q1 2017. The decline was mainly ascribed to the residential, commercial, and agricultural sectors declining 9.5%, 11.7%, and 1.3%, respectively. According to a statement issued by UAE Central Bank, foreign assets of the bank rose 6.1% YoY (AED18.8mn) toward the end of March. The UAE's non-oil PMI reached 56.2 points in March. The non-oil private sector recorded the highest average of 55.8 points in a year-and-a-half, primarily driven by new orders, high production rate, and rise in inventory levels. According to the annual report published by the UAE economy ministry, the country's trade surplus increased 0.2% to 3.1% in 2017 from that in 2016. The Ministry of Development Planning and Statistics of Qatar stated total exports of the country increased 18.4% YoY to QAR19.7bn in March. Additionally, imports declined 9.6% YoY to QAR9.8bn in March, resulting in trade surplus of QAR9.9bn. According to a data released by National Centre for Statistics and Information (NCSI), Oman's inflation rose 2.8% in March due to an increase in water, housing, electricity, and gas prices. Global credit rating agency Moody's affirmed the Bahraini government a credit rating of "Ba2" with a negative outlook due to increased government and liquidity risks. The rating was also impacted by the government's slow response to low oil revenue.

The fund holdings are constantly monitored for various risk factors by our investment team and appropriate actions to rebalance the country's allocations, cash percentage and sector allocations are taken when needed.
