GCC market allocation

GCC market performance - Aug'15

Market review:

All of the GCC indices ended August in a negative performance. KSA's market was the weakest performance (down 17.32%), followed by Dubai's market (down 11.60%).

The Al-Ahli Gulf Fund recorded a loss of -10.68% MTD and +0.87% YTD. The S&P GCC Composite Price Index on the NAV date was -13.22% MTD and -9.95% YTD. The Gulf Funds gain since inception stood at +99.71%. The NAV of the fund was KD 0.962146 on 31st August 2015.

Saudi Arabia's non-oil private sector PMI rose to a five-month-high in August. According to Emirates NBD, Saudi Arabia has increased oil production to maintain its market share, fuelling growth in related sectors. The IMF expects Saudi Arabia's economy to grow at 2.8% and 2.4% in 2015 and 2016, respectively, compared with 3.5% in 2014. According to Emirates NBD, the PMI in the UAE rose to 57.1 in August from 55.8 in July. It stated that the sharp rise in the index indicated softer readings in June and July because of Ramadan. According to the National Bureau of Statistics, inflation in the UAE rose to 4.4% in July, the highest level since February 2009. Qatar's trade surplus in July 2015 declined 55.6% annually. Exports dropped 41.0% annually, while imports grew 13.5%. Bahrain's state news agency BNA reported that the government would remove subsidies on meat from September 1, 2015, to reduce fiscal burden. The National Centre for Statistics and Information stated that Oman's deficit reached OMR1.9bn in H1 2015, against a surplus of OMR250.0mn during the corresponding period of the previous year. The government's revenue declined 36.3% to OMR4.6bn in H1 2015 owing to weakness in oil prices. Net oil revenue dropped 46.1% during the period. Capital Intelligence affirmed an "A" rating to Oman's long-term foreign currency and local currency and an 'A1' rating to short-term foreign and local currency. The outlook was maintained at "stable".

The fund holdings are constantly monitored for the various risk factors by our investment team and appropriate action to rebalance the country allocation, cash percentages, as well as sector allocations is taken when needed.
