GCC market performance - Nov'09

Market review:

Most of the GCC markets performed negatively in November. The KSE was -5.63%, Saudi +1.39%, Dubai -11.7%, Abu Dhabi -11.74%, Oman +0.49%, Qatar +0.82%, and Bahrain -5.45%.

The Kuwaiti Index was the biggest loser for the month due to the uncertainty of the Zain Telecommunications deal. The market had very poor volumes as well. Elsewhere the markets were rocked by the Dubai World issue that came up towards the beginning of the Eid Holidays.

Fund review:

The Croppy market conditions prompted the fund to raise a significant amount of cash. The Al-Ahli Gulf Fund recorded a loss of -4.1% MTD and had a positive of +10.88% YTD. The MSCI GCC Index lost -3.48% MTD and was +21.57% YTD. The Gulf Funds gain since inception stood at +68.73%, the NAV of the fund was KD 0.882288 at the end of November.

The fund manager has taken into account the volatility of the region as a whole in deciding the asset mix and cash percentages. The current GCC allocations remain stable with a selective allocation of Blue Chip stocks across the region. The fund holdings are constantly monitored for the various risk factors by our investment team and appropriate action to rebalance the country allocation, cash percentages, as well as sector allocations is taken when needed.
